A Donor may state a preference that its contribution be used to finance one or more Windows, or certain activities in a given sector, with the understanding that neither the Management Committee nor the Bank will be in a position to guarantee that total spending with respect to any given Window or sector will match or exceed the level of the contribution in connection with which a preference will have been stated. (c) In order to assist in the defrayment of its administrative costs, the Bank may upon receipt of the Grant Funds, deduct from the T-Account and transfer to itself:

- (i) as of January 1, 2016, an amount equivalent to three percent (3.0%) of the amount of the Grant Funds (other than for ad hoc payments);
- (ii) as of January 1, 2017, an amount equivalent to four percent (4.0%) of the amount of the Grant Funds (other than for ad hoc payments); and
- (iii) an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the amount of the Grant Funds allocated to Window 1 (Financing of the Recurrent and Capital Expenditures) for the purposes of ad hoc payments.

The Bank may also deduct from the T-Account and transfer to itself the actual costs of the Bank's contract with the Monitoring Agent(s), as well as the cost of the independent review of the Monitoring Agent(s)'s performance referred to under paragraph 6(b) of this Annex.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in this Letter Agreement, the Bank will apply to the Trust Fund its framework to prevent and combat fraud and corruption and its screening procedures to prevent the use of Bank resources to finance terrorist activity, in line with the Bank's obligations to give effect to the relevant decisions of the Security Council, taken under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations. The Donor acknowledges that this provision does not create any obligations of the Bank under the anti-terrorist financing and asset control laws, regulations, rules and executive orders of an individual member country that may apply to the Donor, nor will it be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of the Bank.

(d) If in the reasonable opinion of a Donor, the Bank has failed to comply to a material extent with its obligations under this Administration Agreement, the Donor and the Bank agree to discuss the non-compliance with a view to resolving the matter. (g) The Bank will report quarterly to the Donors on the status of Grant Funds made available to a Sub-grant Recipient under a Sub-grant Agreement. In addition, at a Donor's request, the Bank will also make available, in accordance with its Policy on Access to Information, audited and unaudited financial statements of Sub-grant Recipients furnished under paragraph (f) above.
